From the President

Whew, what a year this has been. It has been an honor to serve as the President of the Children's Advocacy Center of Tom Green County with employees and volunteers that are an example to others of what each should represent. Thank you to each and every one of you for what you do.

Each person who is involved in this organization is truly passionate for our mission. The Children's Advocacy Center not only represents the children but also the caregivers, whether that is a parent, grandparent, or guardian. The four programs we offer here are Hope House, Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA), Family Enrichment Services, and the Child Fatality Review Team. The Children's Advocacy Center programs are centered by intervention and prevention.

This annual report will let you know the background as well as the statistics of each program over the past year. Our staff supports a thirteen county area including Tom Green, Irion, McCulloch, Reagan, Concho, Menard, Sterling, Sutton, Crockett, Schleicher, Runnels, Coke, and Kimble. Our staff and volunteers spend many hours on the road each year. I am sure that they would tell you one of the best visits of the year is during the Christmas season. At Christmas, our CASA staff and volunteers deliver the many toys donated and purchased through our Christmas for Kids campaign. This is only one of the many times our community supports the organization.

Thank you to our supporters. Our supporters continue to make this organization stronger and stronger. You have helped by sponsoring and attending our Champagne and Diamonds dinner on Valentine's Day, Kids Karnival in the spring, and Slamfest in the fall. The events would not be successful without participation from our community. Oh, and just between you and me, a little birdie told me to look for big things in the coming year from each of our events. So, make plans now to attend Picnic in the Park and Slamfest.

Lastly, and most certainly not least, thank you to our Board of Directors and Advisory Members. Your time is a true gift to the Children's Advocacy Center. Thank you, it has been a pleasure. I will always carry in my heart our mission: "To champion the prevention of child abuse and to serve as an ally of abused children with a dedication to securing for each child a safe and nurturing home."

Michelle M. Perkey, 2012 Board President

Hope House

Historically, when responding to reports of child abuse and neglect, numerous problems have been encountered, including excessive interviews of child victims, development of physical evidence and lack of communication among involved agencies. Having recognized these issues, Tom Green County developed a cooperative team approach to the investigation of child abuse and neglect. In November of 1992, the first child was interviewed at Hope House. Hope House staff work with a team of experts from Child Protective Services, the police department, the sheriff's office, the district attorney's office, medical personnel, therapists and other community service agencies. Together they review cases of children who have been abused and determine if there is enough evidence to pursue prosecution against the alleged perpetrator, always keeping the child victim's healing and well-being at the fore front of the case. Hope House provides a warm, home-like, neutral environment for children who, upon an outcry of alleged abuse or neglect, are brought here for the interview process.

Hope House Statistics

During calendar year 2012, 287 children were seen through the Hope House. Twenty-six cases were classified as physical abuse, 133 were sexual abuse, 87 were neglect or abandonment, and 41 were crime witnesses. One hundred were males and 187 were females. Sixteen clients were Black, 139 were Hispanic, and 132 were Anglo. Seventy-nine children were between the ages of 0-5 years old, 154 children were between the ages of 6-12 years old, 54 children were between the ages of 13-17 years old. Seventy-two clients received counseling, 8 adults and 64 children. Data sources include the San Angelo Police Department, Child Protective Services, Reagan County and Tom Green County Sheriff's Departments and the Children's Advocacy Center case tracking and files.

Court Appointed Special Advocates

Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) began serving children in the Concho Valley as the direct result of the death of a local child by physical abuse. The original founders organized in November of 1986. They called themselves PACA, Parents Against Child Abuse. The group became formally incorporated as CASA of Tom Green County on March 26, 1987. Court Appointed Special Advocates (CASA) joined the Children's Advocacy Center in 1998. The program's mission is to speak for the best interests of abused and neglected children whose future home will be determined by a Court of Law. Volunteers embody the spirit of the program and CASA's goal is to provide each child a safe, permanent and nurturing home.

Who are our volunteers?

CASA volunteers are ordinary people who are trained by a court-approved program and appointed by a district judge. In the life of a case, a CASA volunteer monitors the child's situation to make sure he or she remains safe. The CASA is instrumental in ensuring that a child or family receives services the court has ordered---therapy, substance abuse counseling and/or special medical or educational needs. The CASA will represent the best interests of the children they serve; this may not always be what the child wants. Ultimately, the CASA must remain objective in their recommendations to the court.

Research shows that a child with a CASA volunteer is more likely to be adopted, half as likely to re-enter foster care, more likely to have a plan for permanency, and substantially less likely to spend time in long-term foster care. CASA volunteers improve representation of children, reduce the time needed by lawyers, are more likely than paid lawyers to file written reports, and are highly effective in having their recommendations adopted by the court.

Family Enrichment Services

Family Enrichment Services (FES), created in 1999, offers a whole family approach to strengthening the family. Services are offered in Tom Green, Concho, Runnels and Crockett counties. FES is for any parent or caregiver who is interested in making their parenting journey easier and more effective.

Parent Mentor Program

The Parent Mentor program was designed by parents in the Concho Valley in 2006. The program uses parent input and research based tools to identify areas to strengthen. The program is for anyone seeking parenting tips or guidance but who may not want to attend a large group setting. Our trained Parent Mentors meet with families at least once a week in their homes, or another location that is comfortable for the parent, and tailor services specific to that family. Parenting topics range from increasing your child's self esteem, to coping with an "out of control" child, to navigating local resources. The Parent Mentor Program served 122 adults and 222 children. The curriculum can also be delivered in a small group setting and FES served 79 adults.

Parents Anonymous® of the Concho Valley

Parents Anonymous® was created to provide parents ongoing support and a safe place to vent and talk to other parents going through similar experiences. Children's groups occur simultaneously to provide a safe, structured environment for children while their parents attend support group. Parent's Anonymous® served 25 adults and 59 children in child care.

The Parent Project for parents of teenagers ages 13-17

The Parent Project® is a program designed specifically for parents with strong-willed or out-of-control children. The Parent Project® helps to prevent, identify, and intervene in the most destructive of adolescent behaviors. The Parent Project® served 36 adults and 33 teenagers.

Family Preservation

These are services offered to families referred by the Tom Green County Juvenile Probation Department to provide short-term, intensive, in-home counseling services, aimed at keeping children in the home and families together. Family Preservation served 55 adults and 67 teenagers.

Total Individuals
Served = 698

The Child Fatality Review Team

The Child Fatality Review Team evaluates every child death in a 13-county region with the goal of improving the response to child fatalities, while learning how to prevent future fatalities. Additionally, the CFRT strives to provide accurate information on how and why children in our area are dying. The team has established an effective review and standardized data collection system for all child fatalities. The team reviews all child deaths regardless of the cause. Members include law enforcement, prosecutors, medical examiners, justices of the peace, health care professionals, Child Protective Services, public and mental health professionals, educators and child advocates. These teams are uniquely qualified to understand what no single agency or group working alone can: how and why children are dying in their community. In 2012, the CFRT will develop public awareness campaigns aimed at preventing child deaths based on trends in our area.

April is Child Abuse Prevention Month:

While the CAC promotes prevention and awareness throughout the year, April is a great time to encourage the community to take a stand against child abuse and neglect and recognize that we each play a part in promoting the social and emotional well-being of children and families. During April, the CAC provides a variety of awareness events that include the annual "Picnic in the Park" which gathered over 1200 participants and 50 local agencies and businesses in 2012. The pinwheel displays on the Court House lawn and at Chik-Fil-A (on Sherwood Way) are reminders that each pinwheel represents a case of child abuse and neglect in Tom Green County. As a way of showing support, every Friday in April is "Blue Friday" and all encouraged to wear blue which is the national color of child abuse prevention.

Community Projects & Awareness

Christmas for Kids:

Many of the children served by the CAC do not get to experience the joy associated with the holiday season. Our "Christmas for Kids" program links community sponsorship and generosity to fulfill a real Christmas wish for the children in the Court Appointed Special Advocate (CASA), Family Enrichment Services, and the Hope House programs of the CAC. In 2012, more than 70 community sponsors provided Christmas to over 400 children in need.

Community Resources and Trainings

Trainings are offered to the community, professionals, child care facilities, school districts, and other individuals/groups interested

- Darkness to Light (D2L) Stewards of Children: Training that raises awareness of the prevalence and consequences of child sexual abuse. Education regarding prevention, recognition and responsibility of all adults in order to protect children.
- Shaken Baby Syndrome, SIDS, and Early Brain Development: Training to educate adults and childcare providers regarding important preventative steps and stress management.
- Recognizing and Reporting: The training is aimed at recognizing signs of child abuse and how to report to proper authorities. The CAC trained over 800 individuals in Recognizing and Reporting training from the following: TLCA, Trinity Lutheran, Head Start SAISD, Paint Rock, Veribest ISD, Wall ISD, San Angelo Christian Academy, Robert Lee, Sonora ISD, Sterling City, St. Luke Child Development Center, House of Faith, Sierra Vista, COSA WIC, Early Childhood Center.
